

SATURDAY, JUNE 20

THE FESTIVAL SERVICES AT NOON

All Hallows Berkyngeschirche By The Tower

St. Martin-in-the-Fields

Westminster Abbey

(All are asked to be seated by 11.45 a.m.)

AN INFORMAL GATHERING IN THE AFTERNOON

(from 3 p.m. to 5 p.m.)

The Moat of H.M. Tower of London

(by kind permission of the Constable of the Tower
Field-Marshal Sir Gerald Templer, K.G., G.C.B., G.C.M.G., K.B.E., D.S.O.)

The Hanwell Band of the Salvation Army, Bandmaster Kelvin Ketteringham, will be in attendance. Light refreshments and teas will be available. The Invitation Card will also confer the privilege of entry to the Tower other than to the Jewel House.

For those who have secured tickets in advance, High Tea will be served at 5 p.m. in the Penthouse Restaurant of John Barker's store or the Thackeray Room of Derry & Toms' store, both stores and the Roof Garden at Barker's being open to the public until 5.30 p.m.

GETTING AROUND

The map of the Underground in the Toc H diary will help. Convenient stations are:

St. Martin-in-the-Fields

Leicester Square (Piccadilly & Northern Lines)
Strand (Northern)
Trafalgar Square (Bakerloo) or
Charing Cross (Circle & District)

Westminster Abbey

Westminster & St. James' Park (Circle and District)

All Hallows By The Tower, The Tower and Tower Hill

Tower Hill (Circle & District)

Royal Albert Hall

South Kensington (Circle, District & Piccadilly - eight minutes walk by subway to Exhibition Road and Prince Consort Road)
Knightsbridge (Piccadilly) or
High Street Kensington (Circle & District), both about twelve minutes walk.

There are numerous 'bus or coach routes, except to Tower Hill for which the nearest routes are via the Monument, Fenchurch Street, The Minories or Aldgate.

Prideaux House

Mile End Underground (Central, District & Metropolitan) and 277 'bus in Grove Road to South Hackney Church.

RIVER TRIPS

For those who fancy waterborne transport, there is a scheduled service between Westminster Pier and Tower Pier every 20 minutes in either direction, on and past the hour, and every 45 minutes from Charing Cross Pier to Tower Pier from 2 p.m. Approximately 20 minutes duration.

PARKING

Coach drivers will probably be familiar with arrangements but Police advice is, after setting down passengers at Broad Sanctuary for Westminster Abbey, or at St. Martin's, to proceed to the National Car Park at Vauxhall Bridge Foot until required to pick up their passengers again at an agreed spot, and to use the Corporation of London Car Park, Lower Thames Street, adjacent to the Tower. For the Royal Albert Hall, Prince Consort Road, or as directed.

ABOUT THE FESTIVAL

Welcome to London in mid-summer and Festival '70, especially to those who have travelled from distant parts of the United Kingdom, from other parts of the Commonwealth, from the Americas, from Belgium and elsewhere, to help in making the first Festival of the new look Toc H a memorable occasion. Thanks to you all.

The response has far exceeded expectations for some events. Westminster Abbey cannot accommodate all who wish to attend the Festival Service and additional Services have therefore been arranged at All Hallows By The Tower and St. Martin-in-the-Fields. Applications for High Tea quickly exceeded the capacity of the Penthouse Restaurant and the Thackeray Room at Derry & Toms (under the same management) was added. This, too, was soon fully booked and as no other comparable facilities could be found, refunds have to be made to some 300 applicants, with apologies. Some suggestions on meals appear on another page.

Entries for the Festival Art Exhibition have far exceeded expectations and make this an even more interesting display than was the Jubilee Art Exhibition of 1965. In particular, entries for the painting and colour print classes have more than doubled and, appropriately enough, embroidery and needlework now feature as prominently as painting. The width and wealth of the talent within the Movement and its potential contribution to the creative use of leisure are clearly demonstrated. Perceptive purchasers may pick up a bargain or two.

The Friends of the Old House have arranged a Guest Night at Prideaux House, Hackney, for Friday, June 19, which will be attended by the official delegation from the Town of Poperinge. Tickets for this event are issued to those invited.

For those who have not ordered copies of the Souvenir Programme (which had to go to print prior to the arrangement of the additional Services), a limited number will be on sale during the Festival.

THE FESTIVAL EVENING AT 7 p.m.

THE ROYAL ALBERT HALL

The doors will open at 6.30 p.m. and refreshments will be obtainable at the buffets and bars until 7 p.m. and during the interval. A Toc H Literature Stall will be found in the main entrance hall. Copies of the libretto of "Newman", of the hymn "Light With Thy Holy Spirit" and further details of the performance of "Light" will be distributed without charge by the stewards and programme sellers.

The evening's programme is timed to finish not later than 9.30 p.m.

SUNDAY, JUNE 21.

TOC H AT HOME

On Tower Hill

Toc H Headquarters, at 15 Trinity Square, Talbot House, at 42 Trinity Square and Crutched Friars House will all be open to visitors from 10 a.m. until 12 noon and "elevenses" will be available.

All Hallows will be open to visitors from 9 a.m. There will be a Celebration of Holy Communion (said) at 11 a.m. to which those who wish will be welcomed.

THE EUCHARIST AT NOON

*In the Garden of All Hallows Berkyngechirche
By The Tower*

There will be provision inside the church for those who feel unable to stand outside and in the event of inclement weather all will be accommodated inside. Eight hundred people have indicated their intention to participate in this striking conclusion to Festival '70.

THE FESTIVAL ART EXHIBITION

will be open at 41 Trinity Square (admission by catalogue, obtainable at the door) from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday to Saturday, June 15-20, and 10 a.m. to 12 noon, Sunday, June 21. Exhibitors are invited to reclaim unsold exhibits after lunch on Sunday.

MEALS

It is regretted that meals cannot be served at Talbot House or Crutched Friars House. Those attending Festival Services at St. Martin-in-the-Fields or Westminster Abbey are advised to lunch in the vicinity. There should be little difficulty in finding restaurants in Charing Cross Road, the Strand or west of the Abbey. At Tower Hill, on both days, refreshment, on varying scales, may be found at Lyons, Kardomah, Billy's Baked Potato, the Tower Restaurant or Tiger Tavern but there is a heavy tourist traffic in June. Fowler's Restaurant and the Kingsbridge, along Eastcheap, towards the Monument, open on Saturday. Light refreshments and teas will also be available in the Moat of the Tower.
